Hints

-  A subtopic can be indented only if there is a higher or same-level subtopic above it.
-  When you move a subtopic up, any subtopics and/or Notes attached to it are moved with that subtopic.
-  When you move a subtopic down, any subtopics and/or Notes attached to it are moved with that subtopic.
-  There will be times when you find information that you want to put into a Note, but you are not sure which topic or subtopic to attach the Note to. When this happens, create an Unassigned Note. Later, you can drag your Unassigned Note to the topic level where you think it belongs.
-  In Draft:Builder, you can add a subtopic in either the Outline or Map view. Any change you make in the Outline is also made to the Map. Any change you make in the Map is also made to the Outline.
-  You can paste the cut or copied item into more than one place within your assignment.
-  You can add words (student names, places and other unique words) to the dictionary by clicking . By doing this, the Spell Checker will not find the word incorrect the next time you use the Spell Checker.
-  If you want the definition of a specific word, highlight the word and click Dictionary.
If you do not select a word by highlighting it, the Dictionary starts checking at the beginning of the document.
-  Text is increased to the next available font size each time this command is selected.
-  Text is decreased to the next available font size each time this command is selected.
-  If you don't see the color you want to use, click to see additional colors.
To make your text easy to read, choose colors that have good contrast between text, background and highlight colors.
-  In Draft:Builder only, you can insert Locked Text to any subtopic (green, yellow, red, etc.). However, you cannot see the Locked Text in the Outline view, Read:OutLoud or Write:OutLoud.
